Ms. Botezho,

I am a researched in the State of New Jersey and I am working on a project involving a data set named "USJudgeRating.csv". This particular data set appears in a data package for a widely used statistical package called "R".

Unfortunately the data set is poorly documented and I am trying to correct that issue. The data set was culled from a newspaper article which appeared in the New Haven Register on January 14, 1977, Pp. 1-2 & 38. The article was authored by Charles Kochakian and was titled "Lawyers Rate Only 3 Judges in Superior Court as 'Outstanding'". I am requesting a copy of the complete article at your earliest convenience.

Kindly let me know the costs associated with same. Thank you in advance for your prompt attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

Patrick J. Cronin, Esquire
